GERMANY.

VIENNA, March 20.

THE Reaſon of Count Khevenhuller's having full Power to act during this Campaign without further Orders, was his producing a certain Plan of Operation at the laſt general Council of War, which aſtoniſhed all who were preſent; and one of the greateſt Officers in Europe ſaid upon that Occaſion, that if his Excellency was left at full Liberty to execute that Plan, it muſt infallibly put an End to the War, to which all who were preſent agreed. The Archduke Joſeph is to go to Prague, as he did to Presbourg when the Queen was crown'd there.

The Siege of Egra is reſolved on, and the neceſſary Reinforcements and Artillery have been ſent to Prince Lobkowitz.

Vienna, March 23. The Croatz are in full March for Bavaria, from whence we hear the Enemy were in motion towards the Country of Saltzburgh, in order to penetrate into the Upper Auſtria; but that finding the Paſſages well ſecured they thought proper to retire to their old Poſts.

We hear from Bavaria by Count Palfi, that Marſhal Kevenhuller has ordered all his Troops to leave their Quarters, and to move towards Schardingen, in order to begin the Operations, ſo that we expect ſoon to hear ſome important News from that Quarter.

Vienna, March 26. Marſhal Khevenhuller has ſent circular Letters to all the Officers of the Army, to be at their Poſts by the 7th Inſtant. All the Magazines that are preparing in Bohemia, and Bavaria, are almoſt full, and the Remainder is to be tranſported from Hungary by the Danube. They talk of re-uniting to the Crown of Hungary all the Neighbouring Acquiſitions, and alſo of incorporating with that Kinghom the Province of Croatia, and the Bannat of Temeſwaer. A Treaty between our Court and thoſe of London and Dreſden is far advanced. Tranſports are preparing at Trieſte for the Croatz that are going to Italy. We expect important News from Bavaria as ſoon as the Campaign is opened.

Vienna, March 27. Recruits are levied with all Diligence, for compleating the Regiments; ſeveral Trains of Artillery are getting ready in our Arſenal; and, 'tis computed, that the Queen will have in Bavaria, Bohemia, and Italy, this Campaign, more than 250,000 Men, excluſive of Auxilliaries.

The laſt Advices from Prince Lobkowitz ſay, that the French had attempted to throw 1500 Men into Egra, with a great Quantity of Proviſions and Ammunition; but that General Feſtitiz being timely informed of it, had not only defeated that project, but taken ſeveral of them priſoners.

Dreſden, March 24. The laſt Advices the Court received from the Frontiers of Bohemia import, that General Feſtiri z had ſo cloſely blockaded Egra, that nothing could poſſibly enter; that the Garriſon, conſiſting of 2000 Men, had lately made Sallies which occaſioned ſome Skirmiſhes. The French Accounts ſay, that that City is well provided with all Neceſſaries, that they had made ſeveral advantageous Sallies, and that the Governor, far from having any Thoughts of capitulating, expected to be relieved from the Palatinate.

Ratiſbon, March 25. There have been great Movements lately in the French Army, on both Sides the Danube, particularly in the Upper Palatinate, which has obliged Prince Lobkowitz to draw his Troops nearer together towards Walt-Munchen.

The Imperial Army has receiv'd its Recruits, and Count Seckendorf intends to begin the Operations in the Month of April, by way of preventing the Auſtrians, who have not yet received all their Reinforcements from Hungary. Khevenhuller has viſited all the Poſts of his Army, and is reconnoitring thoſe of the French and Imperialiſts.

Cologn, March 28. The Quarters of the Auſtrian Troops in this Country reach within 3 Leagues of Bon; they are preparing to paſs the Rhine, and will be ſoon followed by the Engliſh and Hanoverians. The French are likewiſe aſſembling on the Side of Landau and Spire. 'Tis thought the Death of the Elector of Mentz occaſions theſe Movements. The Eſtates of the Electorate have been convoked by the Miniſters of the Electors of Saxony, Treves and Cologn, who equally pretend to be Directors of the Diet during the Vacancy. 'Tis ſaid that Prince Theodore of Bavaria has a conſiderable Party in his favour, and that he will be ſupported by France, and oppoſed by the Engliſh.

Frankfort, March 29. As yet we know nothing with certainty as to the march of the Engliſh, Auſtrian and Hanoverian Troops, though great Quantities of Corn and Forage are bought up for them in this Neighbourhood, but are not collected together, becauſe it is not as yet known where their Magazines will be. Our Court ſeems to be leſs alarm'd at this march than can be well accounted for, except from this principle, that none of the Allies have the leaſt perſonal prejudice towards his Imperial Majeſty, or any kind of pretenſions on his Dominions, ſo that we conclude, if the French are once obliged to abandon Bavaria, there muſt be an End to the War in Germany at leaſt.

Dreſden, March 31. Mr. Villars, his Britannick Majeſty's Miniſter, who arrived here the 13th, and departed the 15th, is gone to execute his Commiſſions at other Courts, touching the march of the Engliſh Troops, &c. into the Empire.

ITALY

Naples, March 11. The Miniſter of Tuſcany has preſented a Memorial demanding in the Name of the grand Duke, Poſſeſſion of the Fiefs of the late Electreſs Dowager Palatine in this Country, but the Anſwer has not been ſatisfactory.

March, 18. The Garriſon of Gaeto is going to be reinforced, and the new Forts lately erected on the Sea-Coaſts, as well as the Fortreſs of Baia, to be furniſhed with Cannon, Ball, Bombs, &c.

Rome, March 22. The Neapolitan Troops, who are preparing to enter the Eccleſiaſtical State, greatly embarraſſes our Court, becauſe ſeveral Provinces, which are already eaten up by the long Stay of foreign Troops in that Country, will be totally ruined.

Leghorn, March 22. We have heard no News of Lord Theodore ſince his Departure from Iſola Roſſa.

Genoa, March 23. The Kenſington, who came, the Day before Yeſterday to anchor in our Road, reports, that Admiral Matthews was preparing to ſail with his whole Squadron.

The Galley that ſome time ago, ſailed from hence with Money and Ammunition, for the Troops of the Republick in Corſica, arrived ſafe at Calvi. They are hard at Work, Night and Day, in repairing the Fortifications, of Baſtia, and adding ſome new Works to that Fortreſs.

Modena, March 26. The Piedmonteſe Troop have received Orders to march towards the Panaro, in order to join the Auſtrians in the Bologneſe and Ferrareſe.

AMERICA

From Virginia we hear, that on the 18th of April last died there, in the 88th Year of his Age, the Hon. and Reverend Mr. JAMES BLAIR, Commiſſary of that Colony; Preſident of the College of William and Mary; Rector of Bruton Pariſh, and one of his Majeſty's Honourable Council in Virginia; and ſome Time Preſident of that Colony.

From Newport, in Rhode-Iſland. That the Privateer commanded by Capt. James Wimble is arrived there. He, in Concert with Capt. James Allen, have brought a rich Prize, which they took in Sight of the Moore-Caſtle, near Havanna. She is a Ship of 250 Tons, was taken by the Spaniards, in her Paſſage from Jamaica to England, and carried to Barracoa and condemn'd, from whence ſhe was going to Havannah for Sale; ſhe has on board 160 Hogſheads of Sugar, 4 or 5 Tons of Elephant's Teeth, &c.

From New-York. That in the Beginning of June, a Quantity of Ordnance and Military Stores were ſhipped on board a Veſſel in that Harbour, for his Majeſty's Colony of Georgia, to ſail in a few Days, under Convoy of the Goſport Man of War, Capt. Ellis.

And that Capt. Warren, of his Majeſty's Ship the Launceſton, was beating up for Voluntiers, in order to ſail on a Cruize. 'Tis ſaid he will employ ſome other Captains, that have but little to do.

From Philadelphia. That on the 16th of laſt Month, ſail'd on a Cruize from thence, (after having ſaluted the Town with 21 Guns each, the Wilmington and George Privateers, fitted out by ſome Gentlemen of that City. They are eſteem'd, by all who have ſeen them, to be much the ſtouteſt Ships of War which have yet been fitted out of America. The Wilmington is a new Ship, of 24 Carriage and as many Swivel Guns, carries 150 Men, and is commanded by Capt. Sibbald. The George is the Schooner formerly commanded by Captain Sibbald and now by Captain Dowell, has 12 Carriage and 12 Swivel Guns, and 100 Men.

By Capt. Robbins we have Advice from Antigua, that our Fleet was returned there, having ſince their withdrawing from Leguira made an Attempt upon Porto-Calello, but without Succeſs. A little after the Return of the ſaid Fleet to Antigua, the Commodore (Knowles) ſent the Lively Man of War from the Place where the Men of War lay to St. John's Harbour, in order to preſs ſome Men from a Privateer (commanded by Capt. Purcell or Flowers) which had convoyed off ſome Veſſels at the Deſire of the Merchants: When the Barge was coming on board with her Boat in tow, the Lieutenant of the Privateer (one Rouſe) judging their Errand, aſked his Men whether they were willing to go on board the Man of War? and they having anſwered no, he haled the Barge and demanded their Buſineſs. To which they replied they were coming to preſs Men. Whereupon having ſuffered the Man of War's Lieutenant and Men to come on board, Mr. Rouſe ſecured them every one, and having put them into their own Boat, he manned their Barge with his own Men and carried them aſhore. The Captain of the Lively ſeeing how the Thing was, haled the Boats and ordered them to come to; but they keeping on, he fired upon them, and killed one of the Privateer's Men. Whereupon Application being made to a Magiſtrate, the Captain of the Lively was apprehended and committed to Jail; & having produced his Orders from Commodore Knowles, a Warrant was iſſued for him; upon which he was apprehended and committed to Priſon alſo.

By Capt Durell from St Simons, we hear, that General Oglethorpe ſail'd for England laſt Friday, in the Guard ſhip, commanded by Captain Thompſon, having with him Colonel Heron, Mr. Eyres Sub Engineer, and ſeveral others belonging to the Regiment. There being no Field Officer by that Means left on the Spot, Captain Horton it is ſaid becomes commanding Officer. Some ſay the General, &c. had Leave of Abſence for a Time; whilſt others ſay it is more than probable his Excellency has been at laſt ordered home ——— The Reader may take his Choice which to believe
